

Terms of Use: Let's Keep It Simple

Welcome to I Love to Teach 101! We're so happy to have you here. These Terms of Use (TOU) lay out the basics about how we interact with you and what's expected when using our site and resources. Don't worry — we'll keep it short, sweet, and to the point. If anything's unclear, don't hesitate to reach out!

1. Acceptance

By using ilovetoteach101.com (the "Site"), you agree to these Terms of Use and any future updates. We might occasionally tweak the terms to keep things running smoothly, so it's a good idea to check back from time to time. But hey, you're here now, and that's what matters!

2. Changed Terms

We reserve the right to update these Terms of Use at any time. Any changes will take effect once posted on the Site. Your continued use of the Site after a change means you're okay with it. Easy, right? If you don't like the changes, you can stop using the site (we'll miss you, though!).

3. The Service We Offer

I Love to Teach 101 is an online store and community where we provide downloadable resources, courses, and all the tools you need to make teaching easier and more fun. We're here to help you teach better and connect with other educators.

4. User Account

To access certain features (like purchasing resources or joining the community), you'll need to create an account. That means providing us with a few details like your name, email, and a password. Keep it updated, and remember — your account is your responsibility. Please don't share your login details with anyone else. If something goes wrong, let us know so we can fix it fast.

5. Course Refund

We get it — sometimes things just don't work out. If you're not happy with a course, you've got 14 days to request a full refund. No hard feelings, just drop us a message within that time frame, and we'll get it sorted.

6. Resource Refund

Since our resources are digital, once they're downloaded, they can't be "returned." But if you find any issues with the file (e.g., missing content or broken links), let us know within 14 days, and we'll either fix it or offer a refund.

7. User Conduct

We're all about positive vibes here! By using the Site, you agree to use it only for lawful purposes. Please don't post anything inappropriate, offensive, or illegal — let's keep it respectful and safe for everyone.

8. Linked Sites

We might link to other websites for resources or tools, but we're not responsible for what happens there. If you click a link and end up somewhere else, you're on your own. Always make sure you read their terms of use so you know exactly what you're agreeing to.

9. Monitoring

We don't actively monitor everything, but if we find something that violates our terms, we'll take action. We're committed to keeping things professional and positive.

10. Indemnify

You agree to defend and hold us harmless from any claims, damages, or legal issues that arise from your use of the Site. Basically, if you do something you shouldn't, it's on you — not us!

11. Termination

We hope it never comes to this, but we can suspend or terminate your account if necessary (for example, if you break the rules). We'll notify you if that happens.

12. Miscellaneous

This agreement is the whole shebang, superseding any prior agreements or discussions. If we need to make any changes to this document, we'll post it here. And as always, we're operating under the laws of South Australia.

13. Copyright

Everything on the Site, from logos to resources, is protected by copyright. If you want to use something we've created, ask first. Respect the copyright, and we'll get along just fine. Want to learn more about content sharing and licensing? Check out Creative Commons Licensing — it's a great starting point.

Agency Licensing (For Extra Love)

If you'd like to use our products in a membership, program, or other large-scale offering, let's chat! We've got some great agency licensing options. And if you're looking to earn a little something extra, we've got an affiliate program too. Feel free to reach out — we're always happy to connect!

Your Consent for Personal Data Capture

By using the Site, you agree that we may record some interactions (like calls or webinars) for training or promotional purposes. Don't worry, we won't share anything without your consent. Your privacy matters to us.

Changed Terms of Use

Just a reminder: these Terms can be updated from time to time. By continuing to use the Site, you accept any changes. If you don't, you're free to stop using it (but we'll miss you!). Changes happen — it's the internet!

Limitation of Liability

While we do our best to provide great content and resources, we can't be responsible for everything. If something goes wrong on your end, you agree that we're not liable for damages. We're all about creating, not litigating.

Third-Party Resources & Recommendations

We may link to third-party websites or tools. If you decide to use them, you're on your own. We're not responsible for any issues or errors from third-party sites. Always use caution when exploring outside links.

Final Note

We're here to make teaching easier and more fun for you. Let's work together to keep things friendly, professional, and focused on education. And if you're still curious (or a bit of a policy buff), you can always revisit these terms of use to see how we roll. You can also view our full Privacy Policy for more information.
